SGIFF SOUTHEAST ASIAN SHORT FILM GRANT SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Definition:

- A director's statement outlines the director's intent and story of a project in a manner more personal than the script and may include details of directorial style.
- An estimated production budget states how much it will cost to make a project from development through to completion. The budget should reflect the expected expenses incurred in all the different departments, including but not limited to actor's fees, equipment rental, art department, location expenses, and post-production. This should reflect what the project should cost to make, not what you want it to cost.
- The link to previous short film refers to a password protected, secure online link.

Deadline:

- All entries must be complete. Submissions should reach us no later than Monday, 5 February 2024, 23:59 (GMT+8).
- Any submission received after the deadline will not be accepted.
- Only 3 short films will be selected. All decisions are final.

Format:

- Films in any other language other than English must have English subtitles.

Selected Projects:

- The SGIFF SEA-Shorts Grant will notify successful applicants of the selection results by 30th June 2024 or earlier.
- The SGIFF SEA-Shorts Grant does not provide individual explanation on the non-selection of a project.
- Once a project is selected and the disbursement has been given, the project cannot be withdrawn from the SGIFF SEA-Shorts Grant or a full refund will be required.
- Ownership of the short film produced with the SGIFF SEA-Shorts Grant will belong solely to the applicant.
- Recipients must indicate SGIFF SEA-Shorts Grant support in any subsequent project materials, by displaying the SGIFF SEA-Shorts Grant logo in the completed short films.
