expenses, and post production. This should reflect what the project should cost to make, not what you want it to cost.

- A finance plan explains where the budget of a project comes from. The financing can be from sources such as film grants, private investors, sponsors, product placement, a film studio, entertainment company or even out-of-pocket funds. This should indicate how much of the entire budget is secured and how much more is needed.

Deadline:

- All entries must be complete. Submissions should reach us no later than Thursday, 31 January 2019, 6.00pm (GMT+8).
- Any submission received after the deadline will not be accepted.
- Only 4 projects will be selected. All decisions are final.

Format:

- The Tan Ean Kiam-SGIFF SEA-DOC Grant only accepts a secure online link of the portfolio work being submitted.
- Films in any other language other than English must have English subtitles.

Selected Projects:

- The Tan Ean Kiam-SGIFF SEA-DOC Grant will notify successful applicants of the selection results by July 2019.
- The Tan Ean Kiam-SGIFF SEA-DOC Grant does not provide individual explanation on the non-selection of a project.
- Once a project is selected, the applicant will not be able to withdraw the project from The Tan Ean Kiam-SGIFF SEA-DOC Grant.
- Ownership of the documentary film produced during with the Tan Ean Kiam-SGIFF SEA-DOC Grant will belong solely to the applicant.
- Recipients must indicate Tan Ean Kiam-SGIFF SEA-DOC Grant support in any subsequent project materials, by displaying the Tan Ean Kiam-SGIFF SEA-DOC Grant logo in the completed films.
